

OBITUARY

The death took place peacefully in Cork University Hospital of Rita Murphy, Ballinamoul, on Saturday 8th September 2018. Rita was the youngest in a family of four, the last to go to God. Rita loved animals, caring for her cattle, dogs and was always interested in agricultural shows.

The funeral Mass was celebrated by Fr. Robert and the burial was to Dunderrow cemetery.

We extend our deepest sympathy to her son Martin, nephews, nieces, neighbours, relatives and friends.
May she rest in peace.

No. 4. Vol 20. 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time 23rd September 2018

Fr. Robert writes...

DIVINE RENOVATION

A Parish Course to Deepen Faith and Discipleship

(More details inside)

I am very happy that our Parish Assembly is taking the initiative of 'Divine Renovation'. Under the guidance of the Holy Spirit we seek to discern the role of faith in the community today.

Our aim must be about service to people. We must try to identify the contemporary faith needs of our community and find ways to help us to have a meaningful, lifegiving faith.

When people gather, listen to the Scriptures, pray together, seek the Lord's guidance, something special happens. The Lord is present. This is His promise.

We are very lucky that Dr. Anne Francis, who works in faith formation and helps with preparation for lay ministry is going to lead us for this eight week programme.

If you are interested in re-energizing your own faith and the faith of our community, please come along. There is an introductory information meeting in Scoil Naomh Eltin on this Sunday, 23rd September at 7.30pm.

Please pray for our parish and this initiative. If you are carrying a cross in your life, please offer your pain to the Lord for the spiritual benefit of the parish.
