

OBITUARY

Christine Hetherington, Bandon Road

The death took place in Cork University Hospital on 12th June 2018 of Christine Hetherington. Christine was born in Limerick and her family moved to the UK when Odlums closed. It was there that Christine met her husband Liam and they came back to Ireland. They worked in Millers Inn in Browns Mills for a while. They lived in Ballinspittle and later settled in Kinsale on the Bandon Road. Christine was a great homemaker and loved her family. She was quiet, unassuming and did not like to be the centre of attention. She had been unwell only since last October.

The funeral Mass was celebrated by Fr. Robert and the burial was to St. Eltin's. We extend our deepest sympathy to Christine's husband Liam, sons Adam and Aaron, stepson Kurt, mother Christina, brothers Martin, John and Nigel, sister Denise, uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, in-laws, relatives and friends.

May she rest in peace.

OBITUARY

Geoffrey O'Byrne White, Dublin – Malta – Kinsale

The death took place, suddenly from a suspected heart attack while swimming, of Geoffrey O'Byrne White. He and his family had just moved to live in Kinsale less than two weeks ago. An extraordinarily talented man, he gave sterling service to our country in the Air Corps as a pilot, and in commercial aviation. He was a member of the Irish Aviation Authority. A grand-nephew of Lady Gregory, he took a great interest in the arts, loved sport and being out on the sea.

The State Funeral Mass was celebrated by Fr. Robert and there followed a service at the Island Crematorium.

We extend our deepest sympathy to his wife Nicole, stepdaughter Lexie, daughter Elise and her mother May, brothers Derek and Peter, extended family, business colleagues and friends.

May he rest in peace.

HOLIDAYS

Holidays are a time for rest, relaxation and the opportunity to refresh ourselves spiritually and bodily. Jesus took his disciples away from busy ministry activities to 'come apart and rest awhile.' Summer is the opportunity to be reinvigorated and revitalised mentally and physically.

It is a time to let go of stresses and strains that we have built up over the year. It is a time to switch off from work so as to return reinvigorated and better equipped to face our responsibilities again. It is a time to unwind.

May the Lord bless us with good weather and safety as we take a break. May our holiday time bring new and different experiences. May we be grateful for the opportunity to take holidays. May our holidays be life-giving, free from excesses. May we return home refreshed and renewed. Enjoy!
