No. 23. Vol 18. Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time 5th February 2017

Gearoid Wycherley, Chairperson of the new Parish Assembly writes....

PARISH ASSEMBLY 2016-2019

The new Parish Assembly is being commissioned at all Masses in the Parish Church this weekend. It is to serve for the next 3 years to the end of 2019. It was formed from those nominated last November by the parishioners.

The new assembly comprises of almost 50 members from right across our community; clergy, religious, laity, male, female, people new to Kinsale, people with deep Kinsale roots, young and not so young. We have all undergone three consultation and formation events under the guidance of Sr. Karen, the Diocesan Coordinator of Pastoral Development. The energy and commitment at these events was so encouraging.

Our Church faces huge challenges to fulfill the mission that we are all called to, namely, that Christ's message should play a meaningful role in our daily lives. The Parish Assembly is part of the response to this challenge and it's role is TO ENHANCE THE FAITH LIVES OF ALL OUR COMMUNITY WORK AND HELP US HAND ON THE FAITH TO THE NEXT GENERATION.

Let us pray that the Lord will give the new Assembly the grace and perseverance to fulfill that mission.
