Fifth Sunday of Lent

7th April 2019

Fr. Flor McCarthy writes...

“LET THE PERSON WHO HAS NO SIN THROW THE FIRST STONE”

This Sunday's Gospel is about the woman caught committing adultery. The scene in the Gospel was a dark and ugly one. But Jesus illuminated it with the radiance of his kindness. The lovely thing about a kindness done to us is that it continues to benefit us long afterwards, through the memory we have of it.

And the lovely thing about a kindness we do to another is that it benefits us as much as the one for whom we do it. When we treat another person kindly a sweetness falls like dew into our heart.
