OBITUARY

Breda Lynch, Sleaveen Park

The death took place of Breda Lynch surrounded by her loving family at her home on 27th May 2019. Breda was a native of Ballyroe, Dingle, Co. Kerry. She married David Lynch and moved to Kinsale. They were blessed with a family of five. Breda was much loved by her family and friends as evidenced by a large attendance at the reception and funeral Mass. As a tribute to Breda, two songs were played at her graveside, "O the summer time is coming" and Dingle Bay. A fitting tribute to a proud daughter of the "Kingdom" and a native Irish speaker.

The funeral Mass was celebrated by Fr. Peter Kehoe O.Carm and the burial was to St. Eltin's cemetery.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Breda's husband David, sons David and James, daughters Veronica, Marjorie and Virginia, grandchildren Kayleigh, Will, Libby and Milly, brother Pat, sister Marian, extended family and friends.

OBITUARY

Sr. M. Kevin O'Brien,

Kilbrittain and Convent of Mercy, Kinsale.

The death took place of Sr. M. Kevin O'Brien in the Bon Secours Hospital, Cork on 22nd May 2019. Born in 1926, Sr. Kevin entered Clonakilty Convent and made her first profession in 1947. She studied nursing, worked in Clonakilty Community Hospital, then worked in the Diocesan Mission in Peru. On her return to Ireland she served in leadership in her community and gave loyal and faithful service. She was a very dedicated Sister of Mercy and much loved in her community. All of her family of origin were special to her; nephews, nieces, grand nephews, grandnieces, as evidenced by a large gathering at the removal and funeral.

Fr. Tom Sexton, Augustinian Priest, native of Courtmacsherry and a family friend, celebrated the funeral Mass accompanied by several priests. The burial was to St. Eltin's cemetery.

We extend our sincere sympathy to the community of Mercy Sisters and the family of origin of Sr. Kevin.

May she rest in peace.

WHAT THE HOLY SPIRIT WILL DO FOR YOU

Have you ever watched a TED talk? There are thousands available to view online. The powerful talks are generally less than 18 minutes long and cover a huge range of topics, from science to business to social and global issues. There are talks in more than 110 languages, and they are used in schools, businesses and many other settings, to educate, motivate, and open minds. While the speakers come from a variety of backgrounds, the one thing they have in common is their ability to communicate. For every talk I've listened to, the speaker has the audience in the palm of their hand. They are gifted communicators, with a passion for a particular subject, and the ability to draw their listeners in.

We often hear that in order to be a good communicator, we have to learn how to speak another person's language. On the day of Pentecost, when the disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit, each of the people gathered heard them speaking in his or her own language. The ability to communicate and to be understood was the first gift they received from the Holy Spirit. Today, we need the gift of communication more than ever. There are times when we have the opportunity to share our faith, or to witness to others in the way we live our faith. We might feel that we struggle to share our faith in a way that others can understand. In order to meet people where they are, we first need to 'speak their language' – to know them, listen to them, and recognize God's presence in them. The Spirit that came upon the early believers is the same Spirit that guides us today.

POPE FRANCIS AND REFUGEES

Pope Francis has launched an urgent plea asking all Catholic institutions in Europe to take in one refugee family, beginning with his own diocese of Rome. Pope Francis said. *"Faced with the tragedy of tens of thousands of refugees fleeing from death
by war and hunger, the Gospel calls us,
asks us to be 'neighbours' to the smallest and abandoned. We are called "to give them real hope" that should go beyond words
and translate into practical deeds. "God,"* Francis said, *"is not closed in on Himself, but opens and connects with humanity. In his great mercy, he exceeds the abyss of the infinite difference between Him and us,
and comes to us."* Francis said, *"I appeal to the parishes, religious communities,
monasteries and shrines throughout Europe to express the reality of the Gospel
and accommodate a family of refugees
remembering that mercy is the other name for love: 'Whatever you have done to the least of these my brethren you did it to me.'"*
